

BRAUERIA is edited by Hans Malicky, with the assistance of James P. O'Connor. It may be purchased or obtained by exchange of scientific publications. The price of one copy is 10 Euro. Braueria may contain anything which might be of interest for trichopterists, information of any kind, and short scientific papers. Contributions in the major scientific languages are welcome. Manuscripts should arrive not later than March of the current year. Contributing authors are asked to send their texts, in addition to a copy on paper, on diskette or CD in simple Word only, without any formatting or hidden marks and the like. Figures must be on paper, photographs must not be scanned.

How BRAUERIA may be obtained:

- 1.) By purchase: 10 EURO (or the corresponding sum in a convertible currency) per number (usually one number per year). Preferably send banknotes in a registered letter. Please avoid banker's drafts and other kinds of cheques; otherwise add 20 EURO per cheque for the bank fees.
- 2.) By exchange of scientific publications. Individuals may send the complete set of their trichopterological papers which will be used for the literature list in BRAUERIA. Institutions may send publications according to individual arrangement. For colleagues who are exchanging reprints with me, nothing will change. But I want also to ask these colleagues for some financial contribution, depending on what they can contribute.
- 3.) Those who are unable to pay or to send reprints for particular reasons (mainly individuals in developing countries) should explain their situation individually, and may get BRAUERIA free.

Please understand that mailing of BRAUERIA may be cancelled if no payment nor exchange material nor other response comes during 3 years.

Dear Trichopterologist,

Lunz, January 2009

This is a supplementary number of Braueria which comes at an unexpected time of the year. Parts of one manuscript had to be postponed from no. 35 and are published here to ensure nomenclatorial decisions. The next number will come to you at the usual time in late summer this year.

Yours sincerely,
